

Arnis Aziz

Arnis Aziz is currently pursuing her Doctoral Study at Lancaster University, United Kingdom. She is now studying on Design for Behavioural Change in Sustainable Street Furniture design.

Earlier in her career, she worked with Raudhah @ Home in Subang Jaya as a Designer, dealing with furniture and interior design. At the same time, she also worked as a part-time lecturer in UIAM (2007-2008), and in 2008, joined the Industrial Design Department, Faculty of Design and Architecture, Universiti Putra Malaysia, as a tutor until now. She was responsible in supervising and consulting both the Industrial Design Lab and Workshop Technology classes.

She has also been granted numerous Intellectual properties rights (IPRs) – patent and Industrial Design rights, besides winning several awards for design and innovation, and index exhibitions.

Arnis is also interested in research activities that involved sustainable design, design for behavioral and furniture design. She started her research activities during her MSc study and she has published few academic research papers in local and international conferences.

Apart from being a Tutor in FRSB, she is also actively participates in UPM CSDC (Co-Curriculum and Student Development Centre) that offered credit courses, where she has been appointed as Facilitator for Innovation and Invention course. This aligned with her expertise in Industrial Design.

Qualification:

MSc in Integrated Design Studies,
Universiti Putra Malaysia
BA Hons. in Industrial Design,
Universiti Teknologi MARA
Diploma in Industrial Design,
Universiti Teknologi MARA

Working experience:

Faculty of Design and Architecture, UPM
Raudhah @ HOME

Field of specialization:

DfBC (Design for Behaviour Change), Sustainable Industrial Design, Furniture Design

Research Areas of Interest:

Design for Behavioural, Sustainable Design Furniture Design, Urban Design

Contact No. :

+603 8946 4096 / +6013 251 5000

Department:

Department of Industrial Design,
Faculty of Design and Architecture, UPM

Email :

arnisaziz@upm.edu.my / arnisaziz@yahoo.com

